

Mar 7, 1865

General Blair, in South Carolina (the officers and men hated S.C. for taking the lead in the secession movement) reported "that every house in his line of march today was pillaged, trunks broken open, jewelry, silver etc. taken